

ALMEIDA THEATRE

ALMEIDA THEATRE - TRANS INCLUSION STATEMENT

The Almeida aims to be an inclusive space where everyone is welcome, and we tell stories which reflect a multitude of experiences and perspectives.

We would like every person who works with us or visits us to be treated with dignity and respect, and to feel safe and comfortable, regardless of their gender identity or expression.

We recognise that trans people often experience particular exclusions and discrimination in society. We will challenge harmful or exclusionary behaviour and support any of our artists or audiences who encounter such behaviour.

If there's anything we can do to improve your experience or the experience of others, please feel free to let us know. You can contact feedback@almeida.co.uk
